

| <h2>Types of Bins</h2> on Campus | <h2>What to Recycle</h2> | <h2>What to Trash or Take Away</h2> |
|---|---|--|
| <h3>Cans and Bottles Bins</h3>  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - All plastic bottles - All plastic containers - Aluminum cans - Steel cans - Unbroken glass containers | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Grocery bags – recycle these at a local grocery store - Plastic wrap - Aluminum foil - Foods and liquids |
| <h3>Comingled Paper Bins</h3>  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Newspapers - Magazines - Junk mail - Printer paper - Notebook paper - Cardboard boxes - Cereal and shoe boxes - Soft cover books - Phone books - Egg cartons (with no egg residue) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Paper towels and napkins - Tissues - Beverage cups with a waxy coating - Styrofoam containers or cups - Foods and liquids |
| <h3>E-waste Bins</h3> (ZSR Library and Benson)  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Printer Cartridges - Cell phones, chargers and accessories - MP3 players, iPods, Digital cameras - Rechargeable batteries and their chargers - Hand-held games - Computer/Printer cords and accessories | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Regular, non-rechargeable alkaline batteries - Computers and Printers: send personal electronics to an e-cycler like Goodwill; return all WFU computers by submitting an online service request for surplus pickup - CDs, DVDs, CD-Rs, and diskettes |