Taking It to the Next Level: Strategies for Adaptation across the Sustainability Curriculum

March 22-23, 2010

(Agenda dated 2/24/10)

Where:

Wake Forest University, Reynolda Campus, Winston-Salem, NC

Day 1: Benson University Center, Pugh Auditorium
Day 2: Benson University Center, Room 401

Agenda:

Monday, March 22nd

8:00   Coffee service
8:30   Opening Remarks – Wake Forest Provost Jill Tiefenthaler
9:00   Panel: Integrating sustainability across the curriculum – drivers, development, definition, and metrics

Noon  Lunch at Graylyn International Conference Center
       (shuttle leaves from Benson Center at 11:45)
       Optional walk back to campus (25 minutes)

2:00   Panel: Co-curricular opportunities for experiential learning
3:45   Panel: New sustainable jobs and educational & training strategies
5:00   Conclude for the day – Reception at Reynolda House

Dinner on your own; explore Downtown Winston-Salem

Tuesday, March 23rd

8:00   Coffee service
8:30   Deborah Rowe on Education for Sustainability (tentative)
9:00   Paul Rowland on the emerging national agenda for sustainability education
9:30   Workshop: Challenges and opportunities – strategies for integrating sustainability across the curriculum
12:30  Conclude for the day